Short Family History.

The Dabirul-Mulk Khan Bahadur belongs to an old and renowned Hafiz Khel Pathan family of Shahjahanpur (Rohilkhand), whose members occupied high and responsible offices during the reign of the Oudh Rulers, who were pleased to grant them suitable Jagirs in recognition of the appreciable and meritorious services, rendered by them in the discharge of the various important and prominent functions entrusted into their care. The family has hitherto preserved its memorable and hereditary quality of unflinching loyalty and devout devotion to the Throne, and its members have, as a necessary consequence, held distinctive posts under the Government, since the commencement of the British Rule in India. Their loyal and friendly relations with the British Government, particularly during the dark and gloomy period of the great Mutiny have, from time to time, received due recognition from the higher authorities.

Maulvi Mohammad Mohsin Khan, the grand father of the Khan Bahadur, was the Sub-Judge of Banda, when he retired on pension. Of his four sons the eldest, Maulvi Mohammad Hasan Khan, was a Sub-Judge of "the highest grade" and next to him, Maulvi Mohammad Hamid Hasan Khan, a Deputy Collector, at the out-break of the Mutiny. Both of the two brothers displayed undaunted zeal and staunch fidelity in their gallant fight against the rebels and sacrificed their lives for the British Cause. And the mutineers, not contented with their murder, were base enough to loot their belonging and set fire to their dwelling house, ever since known as "JALI KOTHI", bearing living testimony to the remarkable event. The third son, Maulvi Ahmad Hasan Khan, was also a Deputy Collector before and after the Mutiny.

The fourth and the most illustrious son, Khan Bahadur Maulvi Mohammad Qasim Hasan Khan, the worthy father of Khan Bahadur Dabirul-Mulk Maulvi Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, C. I. E., was a 1st grade Deputy Magistrate, in charge of the Firozabad Tehsil, at the out-break of the mutiny. 'His good example and a great local influence', in the main, contributed to 'maintain good order in the district.' He often accompanied Captain Tonnacky, the Officer Commanding the then Gwalior Contingent Irregular Cavalry, 'in his attacks on rebel villages as well as on dacoits and freely exposed himself to dangers', sticking faithfully to his post, till driven from it by the disaffection of the said Cavalry and the Firozabad people, when the position became untenable without a Military Force and he was compelled to follow Captain Tonnacky to Agra. It was through his instrumentality that the Government money amounting to Rs. 2,000 was saved by sending it to Agra, when the temper of the troops became doubtful. He gave shelter to Messrs: Marr and Price and several other Europeans, males and females, during the Mutiny, and rendered other loyal services to the Government, too numerous to be enumerated in this booklet. 'In short he always entertained a good inclination towards, and a good mind for the success of, the British.'

He was, in the words of J. C. Robertson, the late Member of the Board of Revenue, 'endowed with shrewd common sense, tact and experience, requisite for a most useful and thoroughly good officer,' who, as observed by W. T. Church, the late Collector of Bareilly, 'showed throughout his career a partiality for the society of the English gentlemen and a sympathy with their taste and ideas, fully reciprocated by those who knew him'; numbers of retired civilians in England, formerly belonging to these provinces, 'treated him a friend and remembered him with feelings of esteem and affection.' Mr: C. P. Carmicheal, the late Member of the Board of Revenue, in one of his letters to Khan Bahadur Maulvi Mohammad Qasim Hasan Khan, calls him 'one of his oldest and most tried friends in this country,' and while giving a short account of the family achievements and paying a tribute to its steadfast loyalty, concludes by remarking that 'every member of so loyal a family is surely deserving of every considerations at our hands.'

Biography

Dabirul-Mulk Khan Bahadur Maulvi Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, C. I. E., son of the late Khan Bahadur Maulvi Mohammad Qasim Hasan Khan, was born in 1865 A. D. Having privately received good and sound education in the Urdu and Persian languages and also possessing some slight language of English, he at first joined the Bhopal Police Service as Assistant Superintendent in 1886, and being 'active' and 'energetic' and possessing 'considerable detective ability and a strong liking for his profession,' as observed by Col: H. C. E. Ward, C. I. E., the then Minister of Bhopal, was soon lifted to the post of Muntazim Police, in which capacity he discharged his duties with remarkable success, as has been recognised by Her Highness, Nawab Sultan Jahan Begum, G. C. S. I., G. C. I. E., Ruler of Bhopal, in Her auto-biography designated as "Account of My Life" in the following passages :—

Earlier life and Bhopal Previous
Services

"In the reorganization of the Police, very valuable assistance was rendered by Munshi Israr Hasan Khan. He was one among the many able officers who took service in Bhopal during Col: Ward's Ministry and he now holds the post of Chief Judicial Minister of the State. He came to Bhopal as Superintendent of Police, and by his hard work, his strict integrity, and his indifference to the opinions of all except his own superior officers, he gained the respect both of Her Highness and of Col: Ward. Unfortunately, there were others who by no means appreciated M. Israr Hasan Khan's high sense of duty, and the very qualities, I have mentioned, procured him so many enemies that, on the retirement of Col: Ward, he too tendered his resignation at the same time. Her Highness,* being fully aware of the excellent work he was doing, at first refused to accept it; but as he would not be persuaded to change his mind, she was compelled, with great reluctance, to let him go. My husband had a very high opinion of M. Israr Hasan Khan, and often spoke of him to me. Evidence of his ability reached me from other sources, and when I became Ruler of the State, I applied to the Government of India for the transfer of his services.

* Nawab Shahjahan Begam,

Government
Services

He thus broke off his connections with the State in 1889 and was taken by the United Provinces Government and appointed as an Inspector of Police in the same year; and as such he proved himself to be 'young, promising painstaking, and thoroughly trustworthy', 'and to have worked admirably', as remarked by Messrs Thomson and Webster, the then Magistrates of Muzaffarnagar.

The Deputy Inspector-General of Police of his time also, while reviewing his work in one of his reports, observes as follows:—

"This man is very smart, gentlemanly young fellow and one who will command wherever he goes. He is of very good family and takes great interest in his work."

The above services contributed to secure for him a nomination for the office of a Deputy Magistrate and he was appointed a Deputy Magistrate in 1891, and as such, according to the remarks made by Mr: A. W. Cruickshank, the Collector of Agra, proved himself to be 'a most excellent officer, a good workman, active rider, a tactful gentleman of good family, and strictly honest.' Mr. G. Forbes passed the following remarks about his work as a Deputy Magistrate:—

"Is the very stamp of man we want for a Deputy Magistrate. He rides well, keeps good horses, and is fond of shooting. Takes the very greatest interest in his work. His Judicial work is very good."

Mr. H. C. A. Conybeare, regarded him as 'a man of a good family, a good rider, and an active and efficient officer, who kept the Municipality of Firozabad in a commendable state of cleanliness, and seemed to be respected by all classes. While according to Mr. W. H. Cobb, he 'deserved special thanks for the time and attention he devoted to Municipal matters.' Mr. S. R. Daniels, I. C. S., considered him 'a conscientious, hardworking, and a reliable officer, and the best man on the District staff' While Mr. H. G. Peare, the District Judge of Agra, in his testimonial, dated the 19th April, 1896, observes as follows :—

"Although a young officer, Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan has, as far as I have seen and heard of his work, shown great tact and discretion. He aims at a Deputy Collectorship for which he is well fitted, as in addition to integrity and ability he is a gentleman, while many candidates for that post are not."

Thus, by dint of his energetic habits and high administrative faculties, he was soon raised to the position of a Deputy Collector. In this capacity he had ample opportunity of displaying his high proficiencies in the various branches of the executive line. His conspicuous and meritorious services, done in connection with the Famine Relief Work of 1895, won for him a name in the eyes of the superior authorities, and were recognized in the remarks of the United Provinces Government, published in the Local Gazette of that Province. Mr. Bruce noticed such a trait in his character as to use his own words "bids fair in turn to equal if not exceed the reputation of his distinguished father." Mr. H. O. W. Roberts treated him as 'a thorough gentleman, a keen horseman, a good shot, and in fact an all-round sportsman, well known for his integrity, and absolutely straightforward and reliable', so much so that he 'knew no one whom he would more readily follow'. Mr. F. D. Simpson too 'formed a very high opinion of his executive ability and disinterested devotion to the service of Government.' While to Mr. A. B. Patterson, Commissioner, Northern India, Salt Revenue, he was 'a young man of most gentlemanly manners and appearance, thoroughly well educated, and well fitted for Deputy Collectorship both by position, education and merit.' Mr. B. Blood, Brigadier General, also, had 'a very high opinion of him as a native gentleman and sportsman, and a man of ability and attainments.' His reputations, as observed above, reached the ears of Her Highness, the Begum of Bhopal, from various sources and his services were therefore lent to the State on Her requisitions

to Bhopal
State.

Having taken over charge of his new post at Bhopal, he was, at the outset, entrusted with the duties of the Collection of Arrears of Revenue, which he carried out with such a tact and aptitude as to gain the thorough approbation of Her Highness, who was pleased to grant him a parwana in recognition of his good and conscientious services and to appoint him to the post of Naib Nasirul-Muham (Assistant Judicial Minister) on the occurrence of the vacancy. In this capacity also, he always acquitted himself creditably in every branch of State administrations, in which he was entrusted with any duty, and gave proof of his wonted fidelity, efficiency and integrity in such a manner that he was, in course of time, promoted to the office of Nasirul-Muham (Judicial Minister) in September, 1905. Ever since his appointment the Judicial Department has attained a high standard of progress.

The Government of India, as graciously recommended by Her Highness, the Ruler of Bhopal, conferred upon him, in recognition of his valuable services the title of KHAN BAHADUR as a mark of personal distinction in 1906. He has, on several occasions of importance, won favourable remarks from Her Highness and the Political Officers concerned and it has been, in the main, due to his assiduity and untiring zeal in the discharge of his duties that his successive extensions were applied for by Her Highness, one of these being for as long a period as ten years.

He did, on one occasion, show conspicuous valour and unique fortitude in capturing a notorious dacoit named Abdul Aziz, who, having committed the murder of a sentry at the Residency House Bhopal, had hidden himself fully armed under the calvert of a bridge. The Khan Bahadur entered the calvert quite alone and single-handed, and with all that, succeeded in subduing and arresting the dacoit. His other remarkable success was the recovery of three lakhs worth of sovereigns stolen from the State Treasury within a few hours of his taking the investigation in his own hands. These two events of unusual importance were brought to such a successful issue that Her Highness was highly pleased to grant him a parwana sanctioning an increment of Rs. 200 per month in his pay.

He was invited to the Delhi Durbar in 1903 and was awarded a Medal ; and when Her Highness went to Europe on the occasion of the Coronation ceremony of His Majesty, King George V, in London in the year 1911, he accompanied her there and was awarded a medal on that occasion also. He was entrusted with the important functions of management connected with the Viceroy's visit to Bhopal in 1909, which he carried out with utmost tact and success. Having regard to his valuable and loyal services done to the British Government as well as to the Durbar, the Imperial Government, on the precious recommendations of Her Highness and the Political Officers concerned, were graciously pleased to create him a C. I. E. in 1912.

Being highly gratified at the unprecedented progress and vast improvement shown in the various branches of the Judicial Department, Her Highness, the Begum of Bhopal, on the occasion of the opening ceremony of the Judicial Court in 1917, was pleased to warmly congratulate the KHAN BAHADUR on his firm and unshaken loyalty, and vigilant supervision and was further pleased to confer upon him, with the permission of the Political Officers, the title of "DABIRUL MULK", as a mark of her appreciation of his meritorious services.. Her Highness, as observed above, always appreciates his work with keen interest and unshaken confidence. In the Annual Administration Report of the Bhopal State for the year 1906, we find Her Highness to be so highly pleased with his work as to thank the Government in the following words :—

PREVIOUS POLICE SERVICES OF BHOPAL STATE.

THE RESIDENCY,
Indore, 11th July, 1887.

DEAR M. ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

I was very glad to receive your letter of 27th June and to hear that you had been so successful in the Kathagaon Dacoity. I hope you will continue to merit the good opinion of Colonel Ward by your zeal in your work and that if you do I am quite certain that he will not forget you. Remember me to your father.

Yours truly,

(Sd.) F. L. PETRE.

Extract from the Letter of Colonel H. C. E. Ward, C. I. E., to Her Highness the Begum.

I think the Police Officer deserves considerable credit for his action in this case and I would now take this opportunity of bringing his good service to your notice, and asking you to put Maulvi Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan in as Muntazim Police. Up to this he has been working as Moen Muntazim of Police directly under my order since Abdul Samad left. I have formed a high opinion of his capacity, and think that he will be able to carry on the duties of Head of the Police without difficulty. I think that M. Israr Hasan Khan, if appointed Muntazim of Police, will be able to give me better help than is now possible. Practically I have been making M. Israr Hasan Khan undertake the work and responsibilities of Chief of the Police these last few months without the pay. I would now ask you to give him the pay which he is earning.

(Sd.) H. C. E. WARD,

11th July, 1888.

Minister Bhopal State.

I think you are certainly to be congratulated on the manner in which you worked out the murder and dacoity case in Jamunia. The old officials of the State having completely neglected their duty and failed to obtain any case, it is more creditable to you to have discovered the real offenders and to have brought the case to a satisfactory conclusion.

(Sd.) H. C. E. WARD,

28th July, 1888.

Minister Bhopal State.

Extract from the Annual Administration Report of the Bhopal State for the year 1887-1888.

I admit that the Bhopal Police is not immaculate or yet as efficient as it should be, but it has improved very greatly, especially under M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan during the last six months of the year under report. A review of the work of the past 18 months shows this fact clearly and also that M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan has done extremely good service for the State.

In every case in which I have sent this officer out to make personal enquiries he has been successful, and by his active energy he has set the Thanedars a good example and has shown them how much success depends on immediate and intelligent actions. M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan is active and energetic; he has considerable detective ability and a strong liking for his profession.

(Sd.) H. C. E. WARD,

11th August, 1888.

Minister Bhopal State.

---

8th December 1888.

DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

My resignation of the Bhopal appointment has been accepted, and one Imtiyaz Ali of Lucknow has been appointed as Madarul Muham.

Let me know whether you wish to remain in Bhopal or prefer to leave before I go.

Yours truly,

You have now been nearly two years working with me as Chief of the Bhopal Police. Your work has been invariably good. You have had much hard and trying work to do and have done it extremely well. I consider you quite fit for the duties of Muntazim of Police and have twice recommended you for the post, but H. H. the Begum has for no good reason declined to appoint you. I have now given you fifteen days' leave because I do not consider that you will be safe in Bhopal after the European minister leaves. The straight-forward and honest way in which you have done your work has made you many enemies, who will certainly take advantage of the change in affairs to give you trouble. So that you had better take leave and wait the result of the references I have made to Government on the subject. I shall always be glad to be of use to you, and if you wish I will recommend you to any officer you may name.

(Sd.) H. C. E. WARD,

25th December, 1888.

Minister Bhopal State.

M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan served with me in Bhopal and through his honesty, pluck and loyalty to me, he earned the dislike of the Ruling Powers.

He gave me most valuable assistance in breaking up the many bands of Dacoits that then infested the State, and it was due chiefly to his untiring energy and pluck that I was able to break up the combination of criminals that was then giving trouble. When leaving Bhopal I commended M. Israr Hasan Khan's service to favourable consideration, and I am glad that he is now in a position where he may have an opportunity of showing what good service he is capable of. I know that I can safely commend him to the favourable consideration of his superiors, for I know that he will do justice to my recommendation.

I have known M. Israr Hasan Khan, Tahsildar of Firozabad, since I came to this district in 1893. He comes of a respectable old Pathan family and one that proved its loyalty to the Government in the Mutiny times.

In his work he is energetic, capable, and reliable. In private life he is a thorough gentleman. He is a good shot and keen horseman, and has often been my companion in field sports.

He is very anxious to become a Deputy Collector, and I wish him every success, as he possesses all the qualities which would make him a valuable Government servant in that capacity.

I shall always be glad to meet M. Israr Hasan Khan again in official or social life.

1895-96—During the year the Tahsildar Maulvi Israr Hasan Khan, Vice-Chairman of the Board, continued to evince an intelligent and active interest in Municipal work ; and many of the improvements effected during the year are, chiefly, if not entirely, due to his energy. I may also state that when the new fruit market was let out free of rent to the vegetable vendors (who used to sit, formerly, on the road side, exposed to all sort of weather) they, as well as the other residents of the town, named it the Israr Mandi, which compliment the Tahsildar deserves.

JUDGE'S COURT AGRA,

19th April, 1896.

I have known Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan for between 3 and 4 years as Tahsildar of Firozabad. It is not an easy place to run as there are a gang of intriguing badmashes, these headed by one Sohan Lal, who gives constant trouble.

Although a young officer, Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan has, as far as I have seen and heard of his work, shown great tact and discretion. He aims at a Deputy Collectorship for which he is well-fitted as in addition to integrity and ability he is a gentleman, while many candidates for that post are not.

(Sd.) H. G. PEARE,

Judge.

M. Israr Hasan Khan is the son of a loyal old servant of Government, M. Kasim Hasan Khan, Tahsildar of Bareilly, well known in these provinces (North Western Provinces). M. Israr Hasan Khan's family is a good one, and he is a quite young man of good principles, who would, I am confident, endeavour to please his superiors. His father is a perfect gentleman, and one of the pleasantest men I have met in this country.

on the 26th March, 1901.*

I have known M. Israr Hasan Khan as Tahsildar in the Agra District and for three years as Deputy Collector here. He has thoroughly fulfilled the very high expectations which I was originally led to form from my previous knowledge of the members of his family. A man of his integrity and loyalty towards his superiors is bound to raise up enemies. On the present occasion the enemies raised by his conduct of the enquiry into Chaudhari Mahander Singh's behaviour during the late Moharram at Bangarmau, and by his action in regard to bad characters of Unao and its neighbourhood, are perhaps more powerful than usual. I am confident, however, that whatever they may do M. Israr Hasan Khan need have no apprehensions of any mischief to his reputation or to himself.

MY DEAR IMPEY,

I give a line to introduce M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, one of the best Deputy Collectors in the Division, whom I have known and liked from the time he was a boy. His father, Qasim Hasan Khan, was Tahsildar of Bareilly for a great number of years, and was loyal to us in the mutiny. His family is a very highly respected one, old Rohilla Pathans of Shahjahanpur.

He has proved himself to be an excellent Magistrate when in Court and when out of doors he is an A. I. sportsman. He has now been transferred to Bhopal, and his loss to this district will be a great one. I shall ever be pleased to hear of his prosperity and welfare.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, UNAO.

11th July, 1902.

M. Israr Hasan Khan is leaving Unao to enter the service of the Bhopal State. He has been in the district for over 5 years and he has earned the esteem of all the Deputy Commissioners under whom he has served.

I knew his cousin who was a Tahsildar in Cawnpore District and a good officer and sportsman.

My acquaintance with M. Israr Hasan Khan has been for four months only but during that time I have formed a very high opinion of his executive ability and disinterested devotion to the service of Government. He was of great assistance to me when the Ram Naumi and the Moharram fell together and there was some fear of quarrels between Hindus and Mohammedans. I hope he will serve his new masters as well as he has served the Government and that he has a prosperous career before him.

DEPUTATION TO BHOPAL STATE.

REMARKS BY HER HIGHNESS (Parwanas)

COPY of a Parwana granted by Her Highness to Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan after the Delhi Durbar enumerating the services done by him since the time of his deputation to this state.

In the beginning I entrusted you with the work of collection of Arrears of Revenue, which really you discharged to my entire satisfaction, and by your able management the State Treasury was benefitted to a good deal. At that very period the Coronation Darbar at Delhi being near at hand I entrusted you with the making of preliminary arrangements for my journey and appointed you to the command of my camp.

Your efforts in this connection were also crowned with marked success and I was entirely satisfied with the zeal, efficiency and honesty displayed by you, in return whereof I gave a Parwana testifying to my approval of your services and recommended you for the grant of a Coronation Medal. Since the work of collection of Arrears of Revenue was given to you as a temporary measure, so on the occurrence of a vacancy I appointed you to the office of Naib Nasirul Muham.

After a year's experience I am glad to declare that my expectations in this behalf have been fulfilled in every respect. The annual returns for 1321 A. H. which are now before me bear ample testimony to your zeal and efficiency, and this view is also borne out by your immediate superior officer Viz: Nasirul-Muham.

Moreover you have creditably acquitted yourself in every branch of State administration, in which you were entrusted with any duty from the beginning of your connection with this State, and you have given proof of your fidelity, efficiency and integrity in the execution of these duties, and thereby earned my entire approval and have justified the high reputation you had brought from your service under the British Government. Wherefore making you permanent on the post of Naib Nasirul-Muham, and making an increase in your pay over and above the budget sanction I offer you future prospects, if you continue to persevere in your present loyal and honest course of conduct, because it will lead to the appreciation of your services and to your advancement, and I trust you will maintain the good reputation in future just as you have done in the past in the service of the British Government as well as in this State, and I assure you that I shall never overlook the labours and meritorious services of my faithful officials. So I grant you this Parwana of my approval of your services that you may keep it with you as testimonial.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

Before I dwell upon the details of the administration of my State I write to inform you that when I so greatly needed a Judicial Officer for the post of Nasirul-Muham I had asked Mr : Bayley to select a suitable man for me and thereupon the Government of Bengal borrowed me the services of Khan Bahadur M. Nasiruddin, who is now desirous to revert to his original post.

Consequently I find it necessary to make some arrangements to fill up the vacancy and to notify my selection to the Government so that no difficulty may arise after his departure.

At present, so far I think, Munshi Israr Hasan Khan, Deputy Magistrate, who is serving here as an Assistant Judicial Minister seems fully qualified for the post of Nasirul-Muham. This means his promotion to a higher post which he deserves after his three years services.

It is also necessary for me to point out that I borrowed the services of Munshi Israr Hasan Khan from the United Provinces Government first for one year and then for two years, and I have lately secured an extension of his services for three years more. The Services which he and his ancestors rendered to the British Government are too well known to require mention. The high position of his family and their loyalty towards the British Government, in the dark days of Mutiny, and their honesty and integrity are generally known and need no comment.

During the last three years I have had sufficient experience of his work to place confidence in his ability. He has also acquired a knowledge of customs and usage of the State during this period. It is a proof of his good service that the Honourable Mr. Bayley and Major Impey and Manners Smith have expressed their satisfaction with his work which can be gathered from his testimonials. I believe the present Political Agent also approves of his services. Besides this the public also have full confidence in his administration of justice.

Out of his three years services in the Bhopal he has been discharging the duties of Assistant Judicial Minister for two years. He has also officiated for the Nasirul-Muham on several occasions besides doing his ordinary duties, when the latter officer went on leave. He has also supervised the work of the other courts and raised them to a high standard of efficiency. The Nasirul-Muham has also expressed his approval of his work from time to time.

Besides his claims there are other grounds justifying his appointment to this post. He has gained a large experience during these three years and if a new man is appointed he will take a long time to make himself acquainted with his duties which will entail a deterioration of work.

His appointment is specially necessary at this stage of administration when the Police Department is being reorganised.

I have every confidence in him and no other person will be a fit substitute for him. Besides this he holds the same post of Deputy Collector under the Government as Moulvi Nasiruddin.

In short, in view of his being an Assistant Judicial Minister, occasionally officiating for the Nasirul-Muham and giving satisfaction of his work, he has proved himself fully entitled to this post.

I therefore request you to write to Government that I propose to appoint him to the post of Nasirul-Muham from September, 1905, when Munshi Nasiruddin relinquishes charge of his office, on probation for three years ending July, 1908 (the period for which his services have already been borrowed) on a pay of Rs. 800/- This recognition of his services will be an encouragement to other officials of the State.

I therefore require your kind assistance in this matter. I hope you will concur with me and represent my views to the British Government so that there may be no hitch in carrying out the project.

ORDER OF APPOINTMENT TO THE OFFICE

To

M. MOHAMMAD ISBAR HASAN KHAN,

Deputy Magistrate.

Be it known that the services of Khan Bahadur Maulvi Syed Nasiruddin were lent to this State by the Government of India for two years, that by reason of the unsuitableness of climate the said gentleman wishes to go back to his permanent post in the Government service and he will lay down the office of Nasirul Muham (Judicial Minister) on the 16th September, 1905. As you have from the commencement of your service in this State given me full satisfaction by your assiduity, efficiency and loyalty, and discharged all duties entrusted to you with utmost tact and ability, and whenever you were heretofore put in charge of the office of Nasirul Muham in the latter's absence, you discharged the functions of the said office to my entire satisfaction, you are hereby appointed to the said office of Nasirul-Muham, for which you are so well-fitted, from the 16th September, 1905.

From the date in question the pension contribution, which is paid to you by the State at the rate of Rs. 50 a month, will be stopped. You will continue to draw a monthly salary of Rs. 800, the pension contribution, whatever it may amount to, will be remitted direct to the Government Treasury.

From your old connection with the State and your loyal sentiments I am fully confident that you shall continue to discharge the functions of your new office with as much credit as you have been doing hitherto, and that you shall also maintain the same standard of popularity as you have hitherto maintained in the service of the Government, as well as, in that of the State. This will tend to your advancement and my approval.

At the departure of Nasirul-Muham you are hereby directed to take charge of his office from him, and make over charge of your own office to Maulvi Enayet Karim, and report the fact to me in due course.

Copy of a letter from Her Highness to the Honourable C. S. Bayley Agent Governor-General C. I., recommending Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan for Khan Bahadurship in recognition of the appreciable services rendered by him to the State and highly commending on the antecedents of his family. This copy Her Highness had been pleased to grant to Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan after the announcement of his Khan Bahadurship to act as a testimonial.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I shall esteem it a special favour if you will kindly draw the attention of our benevolent Government to the invaluable services of M. Israr Hasan Khan, of the Oudh Provincial service, who was deputed to the Bhopal State, a little more than two years ago, and move the Government of India in strong terms to confer on him the well deserved title of "Khan Bahadur" in recognition of all the appreciable services which the officer in question has rendered to the State, in the administration of its different Departments, and in the general management of its affairs, notably among them being the arrangements made in connection with plague and the Delhi Darbar.

I may state here for your information that when it struck me to reward M. Israr Hasan Khan for his thorough discharge of all the multifarious functions of the State, I made it a point that before I trouble you with a proposal of the kind, I should take every care to find out the antecedents of the said officer as well as the characteristics of his family and their private means. From enquiries on these points I have been able to ascertain that M. Israr Hasan Khan is a member of a well known family, which owns a hereditary estate and the members whereof are all held in high esteem by the Government and have held high position under it, and most prominent among them was his father, Khan Bahadur Maulvi Kasim Hasan Khan, who having honourably served the Government for about 42 years breathed his last. In the Mutiny of 1857 this gentleman stuck to the Government at the risk of his life, and in fact sacrificed his two brothers at the hands of the rebels, who not only plundered all his household property, but set fire to the house itself and killed his aforesaid brothers. The house is still known by the name of "Jalikothe". These facts are well known to most of the Government Officers, and are particularly referred to in the writings of Mr. C. P. Carmicheal and Mr. W. T. Church, which I got read to me and copies whereof are hereto attached.

They further lead me to infer that for all these highly creditable services the old man never looked up to the Government for any compensation and the officers in question therefore expressed a desire to see his sons benefitted at the hands of the Government. Moreover I find that beside the father three other members of M. Israr Hasan Khan's family were honoured with the title of "Khan Bahadur" and a fourth one with the title of "Wala Qadar Khan Bahadur" for their own meritorious services. All of them save one have died.

M. Israr Hasan Khan has also personally served the Government for about 14 years, and in the course of his official career has amply proved that he is an able and faithful son of an able and faithful father. Since all his superior officers have testified to his highly moral and praiseworthy character.

In one of his latest credentials I find Mr. Bruce noticing such a trait in his character as to use his own words:— "Bids fair in turn to equal if not exceed the reputation of his distinguished father" (vide copies of testimonials attached).

Moreover during the famine of 1895 the good services performed by Mr. Israr Hasan Khan, among the whole lot of Deputy Collectors of Oudh, were publicly acknowledged by the Government in its Gazette of 18th December, 1897. And when a riot was imminent on the occasion of Ram Nomi and Moharram, two rival factious festivals falling on one and the same date, it was due to his administrative tact and capability that the calamity was averted, and the fact was specially noticed by his District Officer.

Mr. Israr Hasan Khan's general behaviour and conduct of business has not only made a favourable impression on my mind, but I fairly infer that Major L. Impey and other officers too including yourself have formed a good opinion of him.

For the reasons stated above, when it has been established beyond doubt that he is the son of a father, whose loyalty to the British Government is unquestionable and whose family has always been honoured with such distinction, and that he himself has hitherto maintained a respectable position and has got considerable private means of his own, and moreover has creditably acquitted himself both in the service of the British Government, as a Deputy Collector, and in this State, as Assistant to the Judicial Minister, and as all the high officers of Government are in accord with me that his merits deserve due recognition at our hands, I think I am only doing my duty in submitting this proposal to Government, since he richly deserves the distinction, and if his services had not been transferred to this State I think he might by this time have found some one to plead his cause before the Government.

Under these circumstances I think that if this request of mine is granted by the Government it will not only gratify me personally, but serve as an incentive to the faithful servants of the Government deputed to the Native States, and as a model to the public servants of the State in general in moulding their character. So I have every reason to hope that you and my friend Major Manners Smith will both approve my idea and help me in this matter.

On going through the annual report for 1322 A. H., sent in by the Nasirul Muham of the State, I was glad to observe the high standard of progress which the Judicial Department of the State has attained under the supervision of the Naib Nasirul Muham, Munshi Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan. It is in reality a proof positive of his energy that he has brought the work of his own court up to date, so that the lower courts might also follow his example. The Statements he has prescribed and the procedure of calling for records, and pointing out legal flaws, which he has adopted, likewise lead to a thorough reform which was so badly wanted here.

I am glad to declare that the said gentleman has not only discharged his own official duties with zeal and integrity but as regards other functions also which were entrusted to him, he has proved himself to be an efficient and straight-forward officer.

This is the fourth year of your deputation to this State. During this interval the efficiency, the integrity and the loyal devotion with which you discharged the duties entrusted to you, have from time to time been taken notice of by me in my previous writings, and it was in appreciation of those services that I raised your pay and promoted you to the rank of the Judicial Minister. In the latter capacity also you have acquitted yourself creditably and from the marked progress which I notice all along the Judicial line, I am glad to find how useful and eminently fitted for the State you have proved yourself in your new capacity.

As you have done excellent services under the British Government also and here too your services, after full experience, were found to be highly valuable, I was persuaded to ask the British Government to confer the title of "Khan Bahadur" on you and I am glad to say that my proposal in this behalf met with the approval of Government.

Besides the function of your new office the plague arrangements specially entrusted to you were excellently and diligently performed by you this year.

Under these circumstances I hope that following the natural trait of your character you will continue to discharge your duties as creditably in future as you have done in the past and thus set an example to others.

It is five years now since you have been in this State. The progressive efficiency, displayed by you at the end of each year of your service here, has formed the subject of many a comment made by me on the annual administration reports of the State.

Apart from the administrative abilities of a high order which characterized the administration of every Department placed under your charge, I wish to testify with great pleasure that by your toilsome labours and untiring zeal, and conscientious discharge of duties, you have not only given me entire satisfaction but have thereby earned a great popularity amongst all classes of my subjects, and even amongst the Political officers with whom you happened to work.

The Judicial and the Police Departments placed under your charge have made such an unprecedented progress under your keen supervision that they would do credit to any Native State in British India.

Lastly I have to record my deep sense of obligation to the Government of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, who have so kindly lent me the services of an able and valuable officer like you.

Khan Bahadur Munshi Israr Hasan Khan continued in the charge of the office of the Nasirul Muham and has won

Her Highness's appreciation by his hard and zealous work. Over and above the Judicial work the Nasirul Muham has also to supervise the Police Department and the Jail and the responsibilities of the Nasirul Muham are consequently not those of a sinecure. The success with which Munshi Israr Hasan Khan performed his duties fulfils the expectations which Her Highness formed of him at the time of appointing him to this high post. The facts that 124 appeals were instituted in his Court during the year under report and 5432 other cases were referred to him, out of which not one has been left in the pending file at the end of the year, speak for themselves. The result of his labours in supervising the work of Lower Courts and the Police is detailed under Chapter III. Munshi Israr Hasan Khan has now been serving the State faithfully for five years, and the Darbar is in a position to record that in him it has found a hardworking, conscientious, honest and useful servant. The Judicial Department has seen much improvement under his supervision. He tries to maintain his reputation which he has brought with him from British Service. The Darbar is acquainted with this officer from the time of Colonel Ward, the late Minister, and appreciates his valuable services.

I am highly gratified at the vast improvement noticeable in the report of the year under review, no doubt that you have by your untiring zeal, displayed within the last six years, proved yourself to be a highly laudable and loyal officer of the State, a quality which deserves due recognition at my hands, which I mean to do in the shape of increasing your pay by Rs. 200 a month from the beginning of the new Moham-madi year, for which I have already obtained the sanction of Government, and whilst congratulating you on this promotion I trust that you will ever continue to discharge your functions as ably and efficiently as you have done hitherto and maintain the high reputation for good work you have brought from the Government on the same level which has been attained by you here during the last six years.

Khan and asking sanction for announcing an increment of Rs. 200 in his pay on the occasion of Her accession anniversary in 1909.*

My dear Friend,

I am drawing your attention to the following matter and hope you will be in full accord with me in referring it to the Government for favourable orders and oblige me by obtaining Government sanction as soon as possible.

You and Col. Daly know full well how ably, conscientiously and faithfully K. B. M. Israr Hasan Khan, Judicial Minister, has, since his deputation to this state, discharged the duties entrusted to him, and how valuable his services have been to the Durbar. He has proved himself an efficient and capable officer and is held in high esteem not only by me and all the Political Officers but also by the British Government for the many admirable qualities which he possesses. His meritorious services have earned him a well deserved recognition in the shape of a rapid promotion in this State as well as under the United Provinces Government. But up to this time he is getting Rs. 200 less than the full pay of his post.

There are two Ministers in this State, one of whom is the head of the Judicial and the other of the Revenue Department. Khan Bahadur M. Nasiruddin, a retired Deputy Collector of Bengal is the Revenue Minister and draws Rs. 1,200 a month, and Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan who is the Judicial Minister gets only Rs. 1,000 a month. The budget allotment for both these posts is Rs. 2,500 a month, and I had been intending to reward M. Israr Hasan Khan's services by giving him an increment of Rs. 200 when he captured the notorious outlaw, Abdul Aziz Khan, who had just then committed dacoity and murder at the Agency House and who was standing with a loaded gun in his hand to shoot any one who might come across his path. It was an act of heroism for which I thought fit to reward him by making up for this deficiency in his pay. But I postponed my intention as I considered the beginning of the new session a more fitting occasion for this purpose. Recently in addition to his long record of excellent work M. Israr Hasan Khan has rendered a most remarkable service to this State which will always be memorable in its History. This impelled me to apply at once to the Government through the kind intervention of yourself and the Honourable Colonel Daly for permission to make up for this deficiency in his salary. On 21st March it was discovered that a sum of about three lacs in gold sovereigns had been stolen from the State Treasury. I communicated this news to M. Israr Hasan Khan whose experience in such matters is very large and extensive and asked him to spare no pains to trace the offenders. He applied himself to this task with the most indefatigable energy and took the investigation personally in hand. Within eight hours of the matter being brought to his notice he captured the offenders who confessed their guilt, and out of two lacs and eighty-six thousands worth of stolen sovereigns recovered two lacs and forty-one thousands hard cash. The balance is also expected to be recovered shortly. There could be no stronger evidence of M. Israr Hasan Khan's ability than to achieve this unique success in recovering such a large amount of stolen property consisting of nothing but money in such a short time. In recognition of this service as well as his other services I consider it imperative to make an increment of Rs. 200 in his pay, which will not only be an encouragement to him but have a most useful effect from the administrative point of view.

I trust that you and Colonel Daly agree with me in representing this matter to the Government with your favourable remarks and obtaining the requisite sanction. I wish to announce this increment in his salary on the occasion of my accession anniversary, and hope you will allow me to do in anticipation of receiving the sanction even if it may not arrive by that time.

It is now seven years since your services were transferred to this State. I am glad to testify that during this period you have discharged the duties entrusted to you with great ability, integrity and conscientiousness. You have proved yourself an efficient and capable officer and justified the high opinion that your superior officers formed of you when you were in British service. The valuable services which you have rendered to the Darbar have been appreciatively noticed by me from time to time and have received a fitting recognition in the shape of rapid promotion. A review of your work this year also shows that you have maintained a very high standard of excellence in the work of all the Departments under your control. But it is not only your Departmental work that needs special mention, for there have also been two events of unusual importance which you have brought to such a successful conclusion. In November last you captured with conspicuous bravery the notorious outlaw, Abdul Aziz, who had committed dacoity and murder at the Agency House and who had taken up his position under a calvert with a loaded gun ready to fire on any one who might advance to meet him. Your other remarkable success was the recovery of more than two lacs worth of sovereigns stolen from the State Treasury within a few hours of your taking the investigation personally in hand.

I am glad that the Government have acceded to my request made through the Political Officers to raise your salary by Rs. 200 and congratulate you on this well deserved promotion as a fitting acknowledgment of your eminent services.

Ceremony of the Judicial Court in January 1917.*

I fully realise that the improvements made in the Judicial Department and the administration of the State in general, during my regime, are to a large extent due to your own and chiefly to the Nasirul-Muham's exertions and loyal devotion to duty.

It is my pleasant duty to congratulate you all and specially DABIRUL-MULK KHAN BAHADUR ISRAR HASAN KHAN, whose sense of duty is deserving of my praise and whose firm and unshaken loyalty and vigilant supervision impart the element of a machinery to every scheme of reforms introduced here, as he has minutely studied the changes through which the State has passed and has, from the commencement of my reign, held the offices of considerable responsibility in the State and I am confident that he must be feeling exceedingly pleased at all these improvements and their results in which he himself had played a great part.

Requisitions for Extension of Services.

AHMEDABAD PALACE,
Bhopal, 17th May, 1903.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

The deputation of M. Israr Hasan Khan's services to this State had been sanctioned by the Government of the United Provinces for one year with the option of retaining them if required at the expiry of that period.

M. Israr Hasan Khan resumed the charge of the office of Isal Bakiat here and performed his duties very ably and energetically ; I now propose to appoint him as an Assistant to the Nasirul-Muham on pay of Rs. 400 per month besides the usual contribution to pension. But the period of his services is about to expire. I therefore request you to communicate to the Government of United Provinces for two years' extension of M. Israr Hasan Khan's services to this State on Rs. 400 a month, besides the usual contribution to pension in addition to his salary.

Yours very sincerely,

SADAR MANZIL,
Bhopal, 17th January, 1905.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

The services of M. Israr Hasan Khan were, in the first instance, lent to this State for one year, and at the end of that period, in consideration of his good services in the State, I got an extension of two years in the aforesaid period of his deputation.

The term of this extension will expire in July 1905, and in March next it is necessary to inform the Government whether any further extension in the deputation of the said officer is contemplated by this State.

Since M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan has hitherto fully maintained the high reputation he had brought with him from the Imperial Government and by his special qualifications has proved himself to be a very useful factor in the administration of the State, I wanted to apply for a long term of his deputation to save a repetition of such prayers, but since it is his personal wish that at present the application may be made for three years only, I request that you may apply for three years' extension. And as you and the Honourable Mr : Bayley have had enough experience of this officer, I think it will be more convenient to have this matter settled before the Honourable Mr : Bayley makes over charge of his office.

AHMADABAD PALACE,
Bhopal, 9th September, 1906.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

As in the course of several extensions granted successively to Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan I have gained sufficient experience of his work and found him very useful to the State in every respect, I have made up my mind to apply for a long period of extension this time, so that I may be saved the trouble of repeatedly making the request.

Therefore without waiting for the last term of his extension to expire I send you the enclosed letter to the address of Major Daly, in which you will find that I have now applied for ten years' extension, and hope you will kindly forward it to the Government with your favourable remarks thereon.

My object in making this application so early is to settle this matter during the regime of the present Lieutenant-Governor of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, who was kind enough to lend the Khan Bahadur's services originally to the State, and to agree to subsequent extensions that were applied for thereafter. So I believe that while the present Lieutenant-Governor is in office if any reference will be made to him in this matter, no difficulty will be experienced in getting his consent.

AHMADABAD PALACE,
Bhopal, 9th September, 1906.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

Following the Government instructions which require the Native States to apply as soon as possible, for extension of the deputation period of Government officers in foreign service, with such conditions as the new engagement is to carry with it I send in this requisition. Khan Bahadur M.

Israr Hasan Khan Judicial Minister's services were lent to this State in the first instance for one year, then for two years, and a third time for three years. During this interval after successive experience of his public career, and his high character for efficiency and integrity, I found him highly useful to the State in every way. He always displayed a marked degree of acumen and ability in the performance of all works entrusted to him. The great progress which one notices at present in the Judicial Department of the State is the result of his arduous labours, and hardly requires any description, since I presume that you yourself are fully aware of it.

Having the above facts in view I have made up my mind to have the Khan Bahadur's services transferred to the State for a tolerably long period and therefore, although the last extension granted to him has not yet expired, I send in this request so that the matter may be settled during the incumbency of the present Lieutenant-Governor of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, who had not only primarily lent the Khan Bahadur's services to the State, but has since kindly agreed to two subsequent further extensions applied for by the State. This will save me in future the cumbersome procedure of applying for extensions repeatedly. To my mind the administrative work of the State will then attain a higher degree of efficiency and will be carried on in a still more satisfactory manner.

Wherefore I desire that the services of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan may be transferred to this State for ten years, ending with July 1918, subject to his drawing Rs. 800 as net pay and Rs. 37-8-0 as pension contribution and other emoluments in the shape of free house accommodation, furniture and conveyance, which he is at present allowed by the State, and, when on tour, travelling allowances, tents, and transport carriages at the rate allowed by the Civil Service Regulations.

As the pay of the two Ministers, Revenue and Judicial, here originally stood at Rs. 1,000 each and out of which only Rs. 800 is at present given to the Khan Bahadur, I may further be permitted by the Government to raise his pay to

Rs. 1,000 when it may appear proper to me to do so in the course of extension herein applied for,

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I was pleased to hear from your confidential letter No. 130 of 1906, dated the 18th September, 1906, that you have very kindly forwarded my letter regarding the extension of Khan Bahadur Munshi Israr Hasan Khan's deputation to the Honourable the Agent to the Governor-General at Indore.

As His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh is shortly to leave India, and I wish to have the extension of Munshi Israr Hasan Khan sanctioned by His Honour during his administration, I therefore trust that the matter of the said officer's extension has already been referred to the Government of India by the Honourable the Agent to the Governor-General at Indore.

AHMADABAD PALACE,

Bhopal, 22nd December, 1906.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I have received your favour of the 7th instant. It is impossible for me to express my gratitude for the cordial and sincere interest you always evince in the matters connected with my State.

Now as regards the delay which by chance occurred in the matter under reference, in case the new Lieutenant-Governor is your old friend it may prove all the more beneficial, as most probably he will not gainsay your recommendation for extension and thus the motion will be attended with success.

In my opinion when after due experience I have made up my mind to obtain this long extension in the services of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan without waiting further for the present term to expire, it may not be inexpedient to send the proposal on to the Government in due course, so I shall feel much obliged to you if, as per my request contained in my letter of the 9th September 1906, you will send my proposal on to the Government by the end of December, so that it may come up before the new Lieutenant-Governor, and by doing this you will again have the chance of settling the matter verbally at Agra. By adopting this course there is, I believe, every chance of the proposal meeting with approval without any difficulty.

I hope you will agree to act on the line suggested above and oblige me by doing so.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

From the enclosed letter you will find that I have again addressed Major Daly on the subject of the extension of the deputation period of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan about which I had formally applied in my letters dated 9th and 11th September 1906 respectively.

Finding you to be as friendly disposed towards me as your predecessors-in-office, I trust that through your help the Khan Bahadur's short deputation to this State which commenced in your predecessor's time will achieve a long ending during your incumbency.

I shall be greatly obliged to you if you will kindly try to secure the Government sanction to this extension at an early date and let me know the result.

Kindly send the enclosed letter on to the Honourable Major Daly and oblige.

MY ESTEEMED FRIEND,

I owe a heavy debt of gratitude to the Government of India for their kindly lending me, from time to time, the services of some of their able and efficient officers who have proved so useful to the Darbar. Among others I have to make special mention of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, who has with his untiring zeal and devotion to duty made great improvements in the Judicial Department of the State, as will be seen from the Annual Administration Report of the State which is under publication. He has not only rendered eminent services to the Durbar, but has also secured the confidence of the Political Officers as well as of the people in general at Bhopal and made himself very popular with all classes of my subject.

Besides the reforms effected in the Judicial Department there has been during the period of his deputation a steady decrease in heinous offences, dacoities have been suppressed and cattle liftings have become a thing of rare occurrence. He is now reorganising the Police to which reference has been made by Major Bayley in his letter No. 18, dated 9th March 1907, and this will add further to the success of his administration.

In view of above facts I sent you two letters on 9th and 11th September 1906 respectively, requesting you to apply for the extension of the Khan Bahadur's period of deputation for 10 years. I had also the pleasure of speaking to you on the subject at Agra, where after explaining to you the reason for applying for such a long extension I had also suggested the idea of applying for 5 years, should you feel doubtful about Government sanctioning very long extension. I have not yet been favoured with a reply though I trust you must have done your best in the matter. I am anxious to have the matter settled as early as possible, as it will be to the satisfaction of the parties concerned, and when the extension is granted to Khan Bahadur he will apply himself all the more diligently to the duties of his office.

Trusting you will spare no pains to help me in this matter.

I remain,

AHMADABAD PALACE,

Bhopal, 20th June, 1910.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

It is now 8 years since Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, Judicial Minister, was first deputed to the Bhopal State. During this time his services have been so invaluable to the Darbar that I applied and obtained the sanction of the Government for his continued employment in this State from time to time.

Having had so much experience of his excellent work I applied to the Government on the 9th September 1906 to secure a loan of his services for a long period, so as to avoid a constant renewal of extensions at short intervals. But the Government granted an extension for only three years and assured that a further extension could be arranged after the expiry of this term.

As the extension is now drawing to a close I shall feel much obliged if you will move the Government to sanction the retention of his services by the Bhopal Darbar for a further period of three years ending in July 1914, subject to his drawing Rs. 1,200 as net pay and Rs. 50 as pension contribution and other emoluments in the shape of free house accommodation, furniture and conveyance, which he is at present allowed by the State, and when on tour, travelling allowances, tents, and transport carriages at the rate allowed by the Civil Service Regulations.

I have ventured to make this request a little early so that the Government might have enough time at their disposal to make their own arrangements and that the matter of this Officer's extension be settled during the time of Colonel Daly who is fully aware of his excellent services.

With best wishes and kind regards,

The last extension granted to Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, C. I. E., Judicial Minister, Bhopal State, terminates in July 1917.

Since during this period also his services have proved as useful to the State as I have repeatedly described in my previous letters, I request you to kindly obtain the Government of India's sanction to another extension of 3 years till July 1920, subject to the conditions under which he is serving here at present.

AHMADABAD PALACE,
Bhopal, 2nd January, 1911.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I visited the Exhibition in the last week of December, and was much delighted to find it a most useful institution the people of India have ever had a chance to see. To be brief, my own opinion about it is that it completely fulfills the object contemplated by you in establishing this beneficial institution. I must therefore congratulate you on this success.

I am glad to say that my visit to the Exhibition has, on the whole, been very interesting, but regret that it came on at such a period when you were not there.

During my stay at Allahabad I met with every convenience and comfort through the nice arrangements made by the Local Officials, and owing to the excellent management of my camp there made by my Judicial Minister, K. B. M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, whom I had entrusted with the work, as I always do on occasions which require special managing tact and diligence. At the occasion of the last Coronation Darbar at Delhi his management of my camp there had been very excellent; and he had been awarded a medal. Accordingly for this Coronation Darbar also the work of the arrangement and management of my camp there has been put under him.

I must thank your Government for your kindly lending me the services of such an able, honest, and reliable officer of yours as K. B. Mohomed Israr Hasan Khan, who, I am pleased to say, has, during the past nine years of his services to this State, given me every assistance in the administration of my State, and has to my best satisfaction proved himself to be a very honest and hardworking hand by a creditable discharge of many important duties entrusted to him from time to time.

For these considerations I have now determined that I shall, whenever necessary, ask the Government to extend his period of deputation in this State from time to time, and so he will have no chance of returning to his post till the period of his retiring from Government service is completed.

You also are well aware, I believe, of the recognitions I have already made of his excellent services to my State, but at the same time it is also my desire to see his services appreciated by the Government, to whose service he really belongs, in the form of giving him a promotion of grade which according to the recent Regulations solely depends upon your choice and selection. M. Israr Hasan Khan's number in the 5th Grade is so very near to the top of the list that, I hope, you will easily see your way to carry out my wish by giving him a promotion of grade which he for his very creditable services rightly deserves.

It has given me great pleasure to learn that you have been elected as President of the Managing Committee for the next Coronation Darbar in Delhi. From what I have heard and seen of your ability and special tact in managing affairs, I am sure of the excellence of the Darbar arrangements under your wise supervision. I for my part do highly appreciate this election.

Hoping you to be in good health.

Promotions during the tenure of offices at Bhopal.

Copy of a letter, dated the 5th of June 1904, from Her Highness to Major L. Impey, Political Agent in Bhopal, reviewing on the meritorious services done by Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan and asking sanction for announcing an increment of Rs. 100 in his pay as Naib Nasirul-Muham.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, Officiating Naib Nasirul-Muham, discharged his ordinary duties together with the additional duties entrusted to him, such as those of Nasirul-Muham in charge &c. with great efficiency, conscientiousness and ability. He decided his cases with great quickness and intelligence in the year under review, and all his judgments were upheld in the Court of Appeal. This alone is a sufficient proof of his sound judgment and legal acumen.

No doubt he has maintained the good reputation which he brought with him from the Government and gave unmistakable proofs of it by his eminent services to the State.

The salary attached to this post was Rs. 500, but Israr Hasan Khan was appointed on trial on Rs. 400 per mensem. He has proved himself worthy of this promotion in every way, and the Government also promoted him from the 7th grade to the 6th grade of Deputy Collectors in December 1903.

Taking into consideration his excellent services mentioned above, it is evident that he thoroughly deserved to be made permanent, and I have accordingly raised his salary from 400 to Rs. 500 (which is the pay attached to this post) and made him a permanent Naib Nasirul-Muham. I hope you will communicate to the Government of United Provinces for their information as usual.

Extract from a letter, dated the 5th June 1905, from Her Highness, the Begam of Bhopal, to Major H. Daly, Agent to the Governor-General in Central India, recommending the appointment of M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan to the office of Nasirul-Muham (Judicial Minister) on a salary of Rs. 800 per mensem.

Khan Bahadur Munshi Nasiruddin, Judicial Minister, having expressed his desire to revert to his substantive appointment, I found it necessary to make some arrangements to fill up the vacancy and to notify my selection to the Government so that no difficulty may arise after his departure.

At present so far as I think Munshi Israr Hasan Khan, Deputy Magistrate, who is serving here as an Assistant Judicial Officer seems fully qualified for the post of Nasirul-Muham. This means his promotion to a higher post which he deserves after his three years' service.

It is also necessary for me to point out that I borrowed the services of Munshi Israr Hasan Khan from the United Provinces Government first for one year, and then for two years, and I have lately secured an extension of his services for three years more. The services which he and his ancestors rendered to the British Government are too well known to require mention. The high position of his family and its loyalty towards the British Government in the dark days of mutiny and its honesty and integrity are generally known and need no comment,

During the last three years I have had sufficient experience of his work to place confidence in his ability. He has also acquired knowledge of customs and usages of the State during this period. It is a proof of his good services that the Honourable Mr : Bayley and Majors Impey and Manners Smith have expressed their satisfaction with his work, which can be gathered from his testimonials. I believe the present Political Agent also approves of his services. Besides this, the public also have full confidence in his administration of justice.

Out of his three years' services in the Bhopal State he has been discharging the duties of Assistant Judicial Minister for two years. He has also officiated for the Nasirul-Muham on several occasions, besides doing his ordinary duties, when the latter officer went on leave. He has also supervised the work of the other courts and raised them to a high standard of efficiency. The Nasirul-Muham has also expressed his approval of his work from time to time.

Besides his claims there are other grounds justifying his appointment to this post. He has gained a large experience during these three years and if a new man is appointed he will take a long time to make himself acquainted with his duties, which will entail a deterioration of work. His appointment is specially necessary at this stage of administration when the Police Department is being reorganised.

I have every confidence in him and no other person will be a fit substitute for him. Besides this he holds the same post of Deputy Collector under the Government as Moulvi Nasiruddin.

In short, in view of his being an Assistant Judicial officer, occasionally officiating for the Nasirul-Muham and giving satisfaction of his work, he has proved himself fully entitled to this post.

I therefore request you to write to the Government that I propose to appoint him to the post of Nasirul-Muham from September 1905, when Munshi Nasiruddin relinquishes charge of his office, on probation for three years ending

July 1908 (the period for which his services have already been borrowed) on a pay of Rs. 800. This recognition of his services will be an encouragement to other officials of the State.

I therefore require your kind assistance in this matter. I hope you will concur with me and represent my views to the British Government, so that there may be no hitch in carrying out the project.

Copy of a letter, dated the 9th September 1906, from Her Highness to Major H. Daly, Agent to Governor-General in Central India, recommending an increase of Rs. 200 per mensem in the pay of M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, Judicial Minister.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

Following the Government instructions which require the Native States to apply as soon as possible, for extension of the deputation period of Government officers in foreign service, with such conditions as the new engagement is to carry with it I send in this requisition. Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan Judicial Minister's services were lent to this State in the first instance for one year, then for two years, and a third time for three years. During this interval after successive experience of his public career, and his high character for efficiency and integrity, I found him highly useful to the State in every way. He always displayed a marked degree of acumen and ability in the performance of all works entrusted to him. The great progress which one notices at present in the Judicial Department of the State is the result of his arduous labours, and hardly requires any description, since I presume that you yourself are fully aware of it.

Having the above facts in view I have made up my mind to have the Khan Bahadur's services transferred to the State for a tolerably long period and therefore, although the last extension granted to him has not yet expired, I send in this request so that the matter may be settled during the incumbency of the present Lieutenant-Governor of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, who had not only primarily lent the Khan Bahadur's services to the State, but has since kindly agreed to two subsequent further extensions applied for by the State. This will save me in future the cumbrous procedure of applying for extensions repeatedly. To my mind the administrative work of the State will then attain a higher degree of efficiency and will be carried on in a still more satisfactory manner.

Wherefore I desire that the services of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan may be transferred to this State for ten years, ending with July 1918, subject to his drawing Rs. 800 as net pay and Rs. 37-8-0 as pension contribution and other emoluments in the shape of free house accommodation, furniture and conveyance, which he is at present allowed by the State, and, when on tour, travelling allowances, tents, and transport carriages at the rate allowed by the Civil Service Regulations.

As the pay of the two Ministers, Revenue and Judicial, here originally stood at Rs. 1,000 each and out of which only Rs. 800 is at present given to the Khan Bahadur, I may further be permitted by the Government to raise his pay to Rs. 1,000 when it may appear proper to me to do so in the course of extension herein applied for,

Copy of a letter from Her Highness to Major S. F. Bayley, Political Agent in Bhopal, reviewing generally on the meritorious services done by Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan and asking sanction for announcing an increment of Rs. 200 in his pay on the occasion of Her accession anniversary in 1909.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I am drawing your attention to the following matter and hope you will be in full accord with me in referring it to the Government for favourable orders and oblige me by obtaining Government sanction as soon as possible.

You and Colonel Daly know full well how ably, conscientiously and faithfully Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, Judicial Minister, has, since his deputation to this State, discharged the duties entrusted to him, and how valuable his services have been to the Darbar. He has proved himself an efficient and capable officer and is held in high esteem not only by me and all the Political Officers, but also by the British Government for the many admirable qualities which he possesses. His meritorious services have earned him a well deserved recognition in the shape of a rapid promotion in this State as well as under the United Provinces Government. But up to this time he is getting Rs. 200 less than the full pay of his post.

There are two Ministers in this State, one of whom is the head of the Judicial and the other of the Revenue Department. Khan Bahadur M. Nasiruddin, a retired Deputy Collector of Bengal is the Revenue Minister and draws Rs. 1,200 a month, and Khan Bhadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, who is the Judicial Minister, gets only Rs. 1,000 a month. The budget allotment for both these posts is Rs. 2,500 a month, and I had been intending to reward M. Israr Hasan Khan's services by giving him an increment of Rs. 200, when he captured the notorious outlaw, Abdul Aziz Khan, who had just then committed dacoity and murder at the Agency House and who was standing with a loaded gun in his hand to shoot any one who might come across his path. It was an act of heroism for which I thought fit to reward him by making up for this deficiency in his pay. But I postponed my intention as I considered the beginning of the new session a more fitting occasion for this purpose. Recently in addition to his long record of excellent work M. Israr Hasan Khan has rendered a most remarkable service to this State which will always be memorable in its History. This impelled me to apply at once to the Government through the kind intervention of yourself and the Honourable Colonel Daly for permission to make up for this deficiency in his salary. On 21st March it was discovered that a sum of about three lacs in gold sovereigns had been stolen from the State Treasury. I communicated this news to M. Israr Hasan Khan, whose experience in such matters is very large and extensive, and asked him to spare no pains to trace the offenders. He applied himself to this task with the most indefatigable energy and took the investigation personally in hand. Within eight hours of the matter being brought to his notice he captured the offenders who confessed their guilt, and out of two lacs and eighty-six thousands worth of stolen sovereigns recovered two lacs and forty-one thousands hard cash. The balance is also expected to be recovered shortly. There could be no stronger evidence of M. Israr Hasan Khan's ability than to achieve this unique success in recovering such a large amount of stolen property consisting of nothing but money in such a short time. In recognition of this service as well as his other services I consider it imperative to make an increment of Rs. 200 in his pay, which will not only be an encouragement to him but have a most useful effect from the administrative point of view.

I trust that you and Colonel Daly agree with me in representing this matter to the Government with your favourable remarks and obtaining the requisite sanction. I wish to announce this increment in his salary on the occasion of my accession anniversary, and hope you will allow me to do so in anticipation of receiving the sanction even if it may not arrive by that time.

Extract from the Remarks made by Her Highness in connection with the introduction of Settlement Schemes into the State.

I had a mind to introduce settlement Schemes into my State, and the old and experienced servants of the State were at one with me in my ideas. I also asked M. Israr Hasan Khan, who had the experience of Settlement work in those days, to express his opinion in the matter and he fully concurred in my views stating that circumstances of the case did require settlement for a short period, in the first instance, as it would remove the long felt necessity and clear the way for a settlement for longer period.

Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan was at that time here to convey his condolence (on the death of the late Nawab Ihtashamul-Mulk). The excellent services rendered by him during his previous connections with the State, coupled with the good opinion formed of him by the late Hon'ble Nawab Ihtashamul-Mulk, persuaded me to select him for the work (of settlement), which required the services of a trustworthy and conscientious officer. I also consulted Col: Ward about him and he too endorsed my opinion, entertaining high ideas about the gentleman. Necessary steps for the loan of his services were, therefore, taken up and the Government sanction having been received, he was called here and entrusted, at the outset, with the duties of the Collection of the Arrears of Revenue on the 1st of Rabi-us-Sani, 1320 H.

Extract from the Remarks made by Her Highness regarding the Reforms introduced into the Judicial Department.

For the post of Naib Nasirul-Muham I selected M. Israr Hasan Khan, who had already served here as a Muntazim

Police during the regime of the late Sarkar, and had, as such, gained thorough insight into the condition of the people at large. He had for the last two years been entrusted with the duties of the Collection of Arrears of Revenue, which he discharged with assiduity and efficiency. He also delivered able and noteworthy judgments in his capacity as a member of the Ijlas Mushtarka (Privy Council) and maintained good and high reputations in the Government service as a Tahsildar and Deputy Collector. These events helped to form him, in my opinion, a fit and proper officer for the vacancy and he was consequently appointed the Naib Nasirul-Muham on an increased salary of Rs. 400 p. m. with effect from the 25th Rabiul-Awal, 1321 H.

Extract from the Remarks made by Her Highness on the celebration of the 5th year of Her Coronation Ceremony.

M. Nasiruddin Ahmad (Judicial Minister) having expressed his desire to revert to his Government services, I thought of appointing a capable, clever and efficient officer in his place. M. Israr Hasan Khan, Naib Nasirul-Muham, who had already served the State for the last three years and had acquired promotion because of his assiduous and conscientious discharge of the duties connected with the Collection of Arrears of Revenue, acquitted himself very creditably in introducing valuable reforms, exercising vigilant watch over the work of the subordinate courts, and constantly helping the Nasirul-Muham, who did, on various occasions, acknowledge the fact verbally as well as in writing. In short the said gentleman had, by dint of his natural tact and high qualifications, given ample proof of the fact that he kept at heart the progress and prosperity of the State and was a devoted wellwisher and loyal servant of his employer.

To contribute to the above, the high position of his family and its steadfast and loyal devotion to the British Government during the dark days of the Mutiny as well as his well established integrity spoke favourably of him.

I therefore thought it much more proper and expedient to promote him to the post than to call a new hand from outside.

If the latter course had to be adopted and a new man were to be asked for, he would have taken much time to gain sufficient experience of State affairs before proving himself to be of any material help to me. M. Israr Hasan Khan did not lack such experience, having acquired thorough insight into the State business and taken a prominent part in the various schemes of reforms introduced into the Judicial and Police Departments. For the above reasons I raised him to the rank of Nasirul-Muham on a salary of Rs. 800/- p. m. and he took over charge of his new office on the 16th of September 1905, corresponding to the 15th of Rajab, 1323 Hijri.

Extract from the remarks made by Her Highness, narrating the Marriage Ceremony of Prince Major Haji Hamidullah Khan, B. A. (the youngest son and Chief Secretary to Her Highness.)

M. Israr Hasan Khan was entrusted with the duties of the management of the marriage ceremonial affairs which he executed with great aptitude and integrity, deserving of my praise for his energetic and approved labour. To satisfy his ambition he was, with the previous sanction of the Government of India, accorded in G. O. No. <sup>3602</sup>/<sub>1068</sub>, dated the 17th of August 1906, granted a 'Khat' worth Rs. 1,000 as a befitting recognition of his excellent services.

Political Officers' Remarks.

Extract from the opinion expressed by Major L. Impey, Political Agent in Bhopal, on the 8th June, 1904.

---

I should be sorry to leave without expressing a hope that we may meet again. I should also like to inform you that so far I have been able to see, your work in Bhopal has thoroughly justified Her Highness's selection of you.

---

Extract from the opinion expressed by the Hon'ble C. S. Bayley, late Agent to Governor-General in Central India, on the 24th February 1905.

M. Israr Hasan Khan, who had been in service of the Bhopal Darbar in the time of Her Highness, the Shahjahan Begam, and had subsequently reverted to his permanent post in British India, was again lent to the Darbar at the request of Her Highness, the Sultan Jahan Begam, in July 1902. His work has earned the approval of Her Highness, who appointed him Naib Nasirul-Muham and has since, with the sanction of the Government of India, raised his pay, and has applied for an extension of his services.

From all that I have seen and heard of his work I have every reason to believe that M. Israr Hasan Khan has fully merited Her Highness's good opinion, by his good work and integrity. I may add that he is a polished gentleman of good manners with whom it is pleasure to associate. I shall always be glad to hear of his continued advancement.

Extract from the opinion expressed by Major C. Pritchard, Political Agent in Bhopal, on the 1st August 1905.

During the four months I have held charge of the Bhopal Agency I have found M. Israr Hasan Khan, Assistant Judicial Minister, Bhopal, most courteous and pleasant in all matters in which I have been in contact with him. For a portion of time he acted as the Judicial Minister and I understand that he did the work to the satisfaction of Her Highness, the Begam Saheba. I think that Her Highness has in M. Israr Hasan Khan a good, loyal, and able officer.

INDORE,

Central India,

25th November, 1905.

My dear Israr Hasan Khan,

I send you these few lines on leaving Bhopal to thank you for your invariable courtesy and help during my short tenure of the Bhopal Agency. It is a great relief to know that in official matters one has an absolutely reliable officer into whose hands questions are passing and from whom one knows that a valuable and straightforward reply to these questions will be received. This feeling of absolute confidence must exist with any one dealing with you. Outside official matters, it is pleasant to have so sociable a friend to meet. May I add that both Mrs. Luard and myself have the pleasantest recollections of Bhopal, the pleasantness being due to the genuine kindness and courtesy we always met with on all sides and from every one.

Yours very sincerely,

My dear Israr Hasan Khan,

Your family has been known to, and highly thought of for many years and I may now say generations, by various members of my family.

During the time I was Political Agent in Bhopal, I always held the highest confidence in your integrity and good faith, and formed a high opinion of the nature and quality of your work ; whilst in official and private relations I have always found you a reliable man and a good friend.

With kindest regards to yourself,

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

My dear sir,

I was very pleased to receive your letter this evening and to see the exceedingly good report of your work recorded by the Nasirul-Muham. From all that I could judge myself and heard of you from Major Impey and Major Manners Smith, I have no doubt that you have fully earned the praise bestowed and I trust that you will continue in the future to work as you have done in the past.

With all good wishes,

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Bombay, 20th April, 1910.

DEAR SIR,

It gives me great pleasure to be able to put on record the extremely pleasant relations which have always existed between you and myself and Mrs. Bayley, while I held the post of Political Agent in Bhopal from March 1906 to April 1910. I had good fortune on my arrival at Bhopal in 1906 to be introduced to you by my predecessor Col. Colvin, between whose family and yours there has been close friendship for many years, I believe ever since 1857 when Col. Colvin's grandfather was Lieutenant-Governor of Agra, and various members of your family were showing conspicuous loyalty and giving valuable aid to the British Government. Col. Colvin then told me that I should always find you a true friend and one who could be relied on for information and advice in confidential matters touching the Bhopal State. My four years' experience has shown me that his recommendations were by no means exaggerated.

Your personal friendship, hospitality, and assistance have been of the very greatest value to Mrs. Bayley and myself and I have always found that in official matters, especially in those of a confidential nature, though you loyally supported the interest of the Bhopal Darbar, you could be relied on to let me know the real facts and to give sound advice. Your work, as head of the Bhopal State Police, has been most successful. The excellence of the Police arrangement during the Viceregal visit in 1909 was specially remarked on by the Police Officers who came on duty to Bhopal on that occasion, and the smart turn-out of the State Police, specially that of the Armed Reserve and the Mounted Police, was most creditable to the State and to yourself. I myself employed, through the kindness of H. H. the Begam, a guard of the Armed Reserve Police (which is your own special creation, raised and organised after my first arrival at Bhopal) during my last cold weather tour and I found them quite as smart as the usual Military guard, and on many ways more useful in that being more numerous they provided more sentries by day as well as by night.

Of your Judicial work I have had less opportunity to personally judge, but its high character is evident from the State Administration Reports. I consider that Her Highness the Begam is no less lucky in having such a Minister as yourself than you are in serving under so good a Chief, and I trust that the connection between you and Her Highness may be long maintained on the same footing of mutual esteem as at present.

Before closing this letter I should like to add that Mrs. Bayley looks back on her visits to your wife and daughters as among the happiest moments of her stay in Bhopal.

Yours sincerely,

BHOPAL,

25th March, 1912.

MY DEAR KHAN BAHADUR,

I cannot leave the Bhopal Agency without sending you a few lines to thank you most cordially for the very willing and loyal assistance which you have invariably given to me in the discharge of my duties.

The confidence which is reposed in you by Her Highness the Begam Sahaba enables you to offer the Political Agent, accredited to Her Highness' Darbar, opinions which are both valuable and useful. I have found you consistently loyal to Her Highness as well as to Government and I cannot speak too highly of the work which you have done during the two years which I have passed in this Agency. I shall always look back upon those two years as very pleasant ones and I offer you my best thanks for the consistently courteous, loyal and willing way in which you have helped me.

With every good wish for your future,

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

INDORE,

27th April, 1913.

MY DEAR KHAN SAHAB,

Before leaving Indore I must send you a line to say good-bye. It has been a great pleasure to me to see the excellent work you have done and are doing in the Bhopal State as it reflects credit not only on yourself but on the British Government which put your services at the disposal of Her Highness 12 years ago. Her Highness has not failed to show her appreciation of the services you have rendered in more ways than one, and in creating you a Companion of the Indian Empire last year, the Government showed its recognition not only of your own services to the State and of your position as a distinguished member of the old and loyal family in British India, but also of Her Highness' wise administration.

Wishing you still greater success and distinction,

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

MY DEAR KHAN BAHADUR SAHAB,

It is with great regret that I write to wish you good-bye. I have been in this Agency but a short time, but it has been long enough to convince me that Her Highness has no better adviser than you and I trust that you will remain for many years in your office in the State, an outward and visible sign of the acumen and knowledge of affairs displayed by Her Highness when she selected you for it.

I should like to assure you of the pleasure which I have always derived from your society and I trust that we may often meet again.

Believe me to be,

Yours sincerely,

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

It gives me, as you suppose, much pleasure to hear of your promotion and of the good opinion formed of your work in Bhopal. You will, I have no doubt, continue to act up to your reputation, and to follow in Bhopal the same straightforward career that you have persued hitherto. It will always give me much pleasure to hear of your advancement.

Very truly yours,

Bestowal of the title of Khan Bahadur.

Copy of a letter from Her Highness to the Honourable C. S. Bayley, Agent to Governor-General in C. I., recommending Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan for Khan Bahadurship in recognition of the appreciable services rendered by him to the State and highly commending on the antecedents of his family. This copy Her Highness had been pleased to grant to Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan after the announcement of his Khan Bahadurship to act as a testimonial.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I shall esteem it a special favour if you will kindly draw the attention of our benevolent Government to the invaluable services of M. Israr Hasan Khan, of the Oudh Provincial service, who was deputed to the Bhopal State, a little more than two years ago and move the Government of India in strong terms to confer on him the well deserved title of "Khan Bahadur" in recognition of all the appreciable services which the officer in question has rendered to the State, in the administration of its different Departments, and in the general management of its affairs, notably among them being the arrangements made in connection with plague and the Delhi Darbar.

I may state here for your information that when it struck me to reward M. Israr Hasan Khan for his thorough discharge of all the multifarious functions of the State, I made it a point that before I trouble you with a proposal of the kind, I should take every care to find out the antecedents of the said officer as well as the characteristics of his family and their private means. From enquiries on these points I have been able to ascertain that M. Israr Hasan Khan is a member of a well known family, which owns a hereditary estate and the members whereof are all held in high esteem by the Government and have held high position under it, and most prominent among them was his father, Khan Bahadur Maulvi Kasim Hasan Khan, who having honourably served the Government for about 42 years breathed his last. In the Mutiny of 1857 this gentleman stuck to the Government at the risk of his life, and in fact sacrificed his two brothers at the hands of the rebels, who not only plundered all his household property, but set fire to the house itself and killed his aforesaid brothers. The house is still known by the name of "Jalikothei." These facts are well known to most of the Government Officers, and are particularly referred to in the writings of Mr. C. P. Carmicheal and Mr. W. T. Church, which I got read to me and copies whereof are hereto attached.

They further lead me to infer that for all these highly creditable services the old man never looked up to the Government for any compensation and the officers in question therefore expressed a desire to see his sons benefitted at the hands of the Government. Moreover I find that beside the father three other members of M. Israr Hasan Khan's family were honoured with the title of "Khan Bahadur" and a fourth one with the title of "Wala Qadar Khan Bahadur" for their own meritorious services. All of them save one have died.

M. Israr Hasan Khan has also personally served the Government for about 14 years, and in the course of his official career has amply proved that he is an able and faithful son of an able and faithful father. Since all his superior officers have testified to his highly moral and praiseworthy character.

In one of his latest credentials I find Mr. Bruce noticing such a trait in his character as to use his own words : "Bids fair in turn to equal if not exceed the reputation of his distinguished father."

Moreover during the Famine of 1895 the good services performed by Mr. Israr Hasan Khan, among the whole lot of Deputy Collectors of Oudh, were publicly acknowledged by the Government in its Gazette of 18th December, 1897. And when a riot was imminent on the occasion of Ram Nomi and Moharram, two rival factious festivals falling on one and the same date, it was due to his administrative tact and capability that the calamity was averted, and the fact was specially noticed by his District Officer.

Mr. Israr Hasan Khan's general behaviour and conduct of business has not only made a favourable impression on my mind, but I fairly infer that Major L. Impey and other officers too including yourself have formed a good opinion of him.

For the reasons stated above, when it has been established beyond doubt that he is the son of a father, whose loyalty to the British Government is unquestionable and whose family has always been honoured with such distinctions, and that he himself has hitherto maintained a respectable position and has got considerable private means of his own, and moreover has creditably acquitted himself both in the service of the British Government, as a Deputy Collector, and in this State, as Assistant to the Judicial Minister, and as all the high officers of Government are in accord with me that his merits deserve due recognition at our hands, I think I am only doing my duty in submitting this proposal to Government, since he richly deserves the distinction, and if his services had not been transferred to this State I think he might by this time have found some one to plead his cause before the Government.

Under these circumstances I think that if this request of mine is granted by the Government it will not only gratify me personally, but serve as an incentive to the faithful servants of the Government deputed to the Native States, and as a model to the public servants of the State in general in moulding their character. So I have every reason to hope that you and my friend Major Manners Smith will both approve my idea and help me in this matter.

THE RESIDENCY.

Hyderabad Deccan,
3rd January, 1906.

MY DEAR KHAN BAHADUR,

I congratulate you most cordially on the title of Khan Bahadur which, the newspapers that reached me last night announced, has been conferred upon you on New Year's Day. Your good service in the Bhopal State has thoroughly earned the honour and I am exceedingly glad that it has been conferred upon you. My gratification is enhanced by the knowledge that Her Highness will also be greatly pleased at this recognition of your work and character.

I trust that you may enjoy long life and health in which to merit further honours and only regret that I am no longer in Central India to deliver the Sanad to you.

I feel sure that Colonel Ward will be much pleased to hear of your title.

Believe me, with kind regards and all good wishes.

Yours sincerely,

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

It is a very great satisfaction to me to hear that the Government of India has given you the title of Khan Bahadur. Mrs. Ward joins me in offering you our very sincere congratulations.

It is very nice of you to attribute so much of your success to me. And perhaps in the early days of your service I may have been of use to you. But once you started as an E. A. C. in the North Western Provinces you have worked entirely on your own responsibility, and been conspicuous for honest work, and honourable straight-forward action in the various positions that you have held, so you have fully earned your title. I hope that you will go on and prosper. Mr. Bayley the last time he was in England told me how well you were doing in Bhopal, and I am exceedingly glad that Her Highness the Begam is so well satisfied with your work.

With the same good wishes for yourself.

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

I don't think I owe you a letter, but looking through some old papers I find one from you, dated the 3rd September 1909, and can not risk the merest possibility of such a letter having gone unanswered, for you told me of your promotion and enclosed a copy of the handsome things Her Highness, the Begam Sahiba, had been pleased to place on record about you and your work and ability and your bravery. You have my heartiest congratulations, most especially on the proof you have given that you are a chief of the old block, and that the devoted courage shown by your family fifty odd years ago was no isolated instance of what good blood can do.

There is nothing better than a high but simple conception of duty and the courage to live up to one's ideals or to die for them and Her Highness is fortunate to have servants, or shall I say officers, ready to lay down their lives in her service.

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

It is sad as you say, how as we get on in life, our old friends gradually disappear, and "one by one pass silently to rest," but it is sadder still now that such numbers of those who were to replace us have been removed before their time by this murderous war.

For your own circle you need not be disquieted. The young members now growing up will make new friends, and the old hands that attached you to a former generation of Anglo-Indian will be forged afresh, though on one side it may not be with members of the old families. Your own name will always carry weight in political circles ; and your family is still represented strongly in the Province you belong to and I have no doubt its value is fully appreciated there.

REQUISITIONS OF KHAN BAHADUR'S SERVICES FROM THE JAORA AND GWALIOR STATES.

Copy of a confidential letter No. 45, C., dated the 12th December 1914, from W. S. Davis Esqr., Political Agent in Bhopal, Sehore, to Her Highness, the Ruler of Bhopal.

---

There has been a "Cause Celebre" in Jaora which has ended in the conviction of a Durbar official and another man for forgery of State documents in connection with an enquiry touching the title to a certain Jagir.

The appeal which has been lodged lies in the ordinary course to the Nawab. But His Highness is naturally averse to dealing judiciously with a case in which executively he helped to collect evidence and initiated the prosecution and in which also he has a considerable pecuniary stake.

He desires, therefore, to constitute a special tribunal, whose impartiality cannot be impugned and to delegate to it his powers in full to dispose of the appeal, and has enquired whether it would be possible for him to obtain the services of Khan Bahadur Israr Hasan Khan as the Judge of it.

Would your Highness therefore kindly let me know if you could spare Khan Bahadur Israr Hasan Khan for a few days on his return from leave and if he would be willing to undertake the business.

Extract from a letter, dated the 30th June, 1915, from His Highness, the Nawab of Jaora, to Her Highness, the Begam of Bhopal, thanking Her Highness for the temporary loan of the Services of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan, C. I. E., Judicial Minister, Bhopal.

---

MY ESTEEMED FRIEND,

I desire to convey my best and sincere thanks to Your Highness for so kindly lending, at my request, the services of Khan Bahaur M. Israr Hasan Khan.

I am glad to say that he proved to be very useful to me and I do appreciate his services. I am thankful to him for the advice and assistance he has given me and the trouble he has taken for my State.

It was only due to Your Highness's favour that I could obtain his services and I am therefore much indebted to Your Highness.

For a week or so I have deprived Your Highness's State of his services, but I feel sure you have not minded it as you are a well-wisher of me and my State and are ever ready to give me your best help and advice.

Your Highness's esteemed friend,

Copy of a letter, dated the 27th April, 1915, from His Highness, the Maharaja of Gwalior, to Her Highness, the Begam of Bhopal, requisitioning the Services of Khan Bahadur M. Mohammad Israr Hasan Khan, C. I. E., Judicial Minister of Bhopal State, to dispose of a boundary dispute case between the two Chiefs of his State.

I wonder if you will be so kind as to oblige me by granting a request of mine. A boundary dispute case between two chiefs of mine, one a guaranteed holder and the other an unguaranteed one, has been hanging on file for a long time. It is to be decided by Panchayat and both parties have appointed Panchas. The question now is about a Sarpanch whose name I have to suggest. I have made two suggestions before and they have been accepted by Central India Agency, but unfortunately both these men are not available, one on account of his serious illness which incapacitated him and the other on account of having been caught hold by Indore. Obviously the Sarpanch must be a man not in my service. May I therefore have your permission to suggest to the Resident the name of Khan Bahadur M. Israr Hasan Khan? I hope you and he will oblige me by giving consent as I am anxious to see this dispute settled. If I hear from you in the affirmative I shall write to the Resident, suggesting M. Israr Hasan Khan's name. The disputed area is not far from Guna and therefore not difficult to access and the dispute will not take a long time to settle.

I am sure that the consideration that to be ثالث بالخير (Salis-bil-khair) is an act of ثواب (Sawab) will appeal to your Highness and to M. Israr Hasan Khan with equal force.

NOTE.—Her Highness was graciously pleased to grant the copies of the above three letters to the Khan Bahadur to be kept as record.

MY DEAR KHAN BAHADUR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

I was very glad to see that the Government has recognised your services to the Bhopal State, services worthy of the high esteem in which your family is held, by the grant of a C. I. E. I have no doubt that it will as you say serve as an incentive to you to continue in the path of loyal service which you have marked out for yourself. Trusting that you are in good health.

Yours sincerely,

It was a great pleasure to learn that the distinction of C. I. E. has been conferred upon you. I regard it as a promise of higher honours to come. You have indeed already merited them by your services both to the Bhopal State and to the British Government. I can imagine how proud your esteemed and honoured father would have been had he lived to see your success.

I have just been reading with great interest the admirable book of Her Highness the Nawaba Begum. I was particularly pleased to read Her Highness's cordial and repeated appreciation of your own character, abilities and services. MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

It is with great pleasure that I have received your letter conveying to me congratulation on the 50th anniversary of the assumption, by her late Majesty the Queen Victoria, of direct authority over her Indian Empire. The loyalty exhibited by members of your family during the Sepoy Mutiny is not likely to be forgotten; and I am well aware that you maintain that high tradition. ## Offer of Personal Services for the War.

SHISHMAHAL,

Bhopal.

14th August, 1914.

MY DEAR MR. DAVIS,

Since here in Bhopal you represent the Government at whose hands we have received full recognition of our humble services, I venture to trouble you with the perusal of the following few lines :—

It is not hidden from your knowledge that from time of old I and my ancestors have been in the service of Government and that my forefathers were in the front rank of those whose loyal services to Government were confined not only to lip service but who actually sacrificed all their worldly possessions and even their precious lives in the cause of Government- a fact which is amply borne out by the remarks of the Honourable Mr. Carmicheal (vide copy enclosed).

Now that the Government has declared war against its enemies in Europe, it is impossible for a man like me who has ever basked in the sunshine of that Government and received due recognition and honour at its hands in lieu of his humble services, to remain sitting mute and looking silent in an emergency like the present, and not come forward to risk his life and property in the service of that Government.

Actuated by these motives it is my sincere and earnest desire that, humble though may be, my services may some how or other be utilized by the Government, and with this object I submissively make this request of you that, since you have given enough proof of your being an embodiment of all that is good and noble and sublime, you will kindly inform the Government that should it in any wise require my humble services I shall deem it a great and lasting honour to serve the Government on this occasion.

With hearty prayers for the success of the British Arms.

Yours very sincerely,

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

You deserve certainly to get an opportunity of serving the British Government as your ancestors have done in the past. But don't you know that as it is you are doing good and great work where you are interpreting us to the Indian and the Indians to us, bridging the old gulf and promoting the sympathy, on both sides, that the King Emperor pleaded for. Surely India's splendid response over this war is largely due to men like you. And our labours in that direction are not over yet! All the same, if only for the "Nam" of it I hope you will get your wish and get to the theatre of war, if that is what you want, and come back with added credit. Perhaps you can help raise some useful sections, say an Army Bearer corps of smart young men wanting to see the world and come to the relief of the wounded.

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

Your offer of your own services was very chivalrous, but you and I, my dear Israr, are too old for the fighting line, and you at least can serve the Empire better by remaining at your important post. MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

Your offer of your personal services was very well made but I think it will be found that you can be more useful where you are in giving true information to your coreligionists as to the real facts of the war with Turkey. There are no doubt ignorant or disaffected people who will try to make others believe that the British Government wanted to make war on the Khalifs. Nobody is better able than yourself, with Her Highness the Begam to support you, to give assurances that there never was any such wish, and that the whole unfortunate contest is the work of a few scoundrelly intriguers like Enver Pasha, Talaat Bey and others of the same stamp.

MY DEAR KHAN SAHIB,

It certainly was a shock to hear of the attempt on the Viceroy's life at Ahmadabad but I am thankful that nothing untoward happened at Bhopal. I do most sincerely congratulate you on all the Police arrangements at Bhopal and the complete success of your administration of them.

Moreover I specially noticed, and even had it pointed out to me by others, how very greatly improved the Bhopal Police were in personnel. Some of the Officers and men were as smart as any in India and the whole force seen at the "Visit" did you great credit.

This improvement is I know due to your own exertion and the wise policy of Her Highness in giving you complete authority over the police and I think you may now be proud of your work and of your Police.

The guests at the camp really could not express properly their thanks for all the kindness and hearty welcome they received but I hope you will understand that Cecil and I send many happy thanks.

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

On arriving here this morning I found your kind letter of the 16th. It must have been a great pleasure to you all that the Viceregal visit passed on so successfully, and I have since heard in various quarters the highest praise of the arrangements and organisation at Bhopal. It was not likely that any untoward event should happen at Bhopal, but still the abominable outrage at Ahmedabad must have made you glad that you took so much trouble to prevent anything of the kind, and that your police arrangements were so successful as all the rest. I was very glad to see you yourself in the place where your work has long lain, and to hear how highly your performance of it is valued on all sides. I hope you may continue to administer justice in Bhopal with success for a long time. Yours is a responsible post and I am glad both for your own sake and for the credit of the United Provinces, that you have always done so well. I shall tell Sir A. Lyall of our meeting you in Bhopal. Mrs. Miller joins me in kind regards.

MY DEAR ISHAR HASAN KHAN,

I was very pleased to receive your letter, dated the 16th. In fact I have been intending to write to you ever since I returned from Bhopal in order to ask you to convey to Her Highness, the Begam, my sincere thanks for her generous hospitality. I can assure you that the visit to me was most enjoyable one from every point of view and I can without hesitation say that it was quite one of the best organised functions it has been my experience to witness. As regards the Police arrangements we can congratulate ourself on the co-operation of the Government and State Police, and we may be thankful that everything passed off satisfactorily after the Ahmedabad experience. In appearance I consider your Police are quite the best I have so far seen in any Native State, and I was much struck with the excellent way the traffic regulations were carried out, and the intelligence shown both by the officers and men. You are in every way to be congratulated on having such a fine force of men which is no doubt due, in a great measure, to your own personal administration.

With many thanks,

M. Kasim Hasan Khan, Tahsildar of Bareilly, is one of my oldest and most tried friends in this country. I have known him since we were young men and shot and rode together. He was a great friend also of my old friend Mr. F. O. Mayne. His father, Mohammad Mohsin Khan, retired on pension when Sub-judge of Banda. Proceeding afterwards on a pilgrimage to Mecca the ship he was returning in was wrecked on the Bombay coast, and every soul on board save one perished.

M. Kasim Hasan Khan's eldest brother was a Sub-judge of the highest grade, and the next to him, Hamid Hasan Khan, a Deputy Collector when the Mutiny broke out. Their loyalty to the British Government being well known for they did not care to dissemble it, both brothers were murdered by the rebels on one and the same day in Shahjahanpur, and their house in the main street burnt down. A third brother, M. Ahmad Hasan Khan (since I believe dead), was a Deputy Collector both before and after the Mutiny. M. Kasim Hasan Khan is now at the top of the Tahsildars of the highest grade. It will be seen therefore that every brother did good service for Government, two losing their lives for their loyalty. I give this letter to my friend on leaving the country not with any view of obtaining him any further promotion, for he is not anxious for that, but in the hope that the service of the family which I had briefly detailed may weigh with officers of Government in giving honourable employments to Kasim Hasan Khan's sons, for surely every member of so loyal a family is deserving of every consideration at our hands.

I have great pleasure in certifying that I have known M. Kasim Hasan Khan now for some time he was my neighbour when he was Tehsildar of Firozabad. I can speak too highly in his behalf. If ever I was acquainted with a native gentleman, M. Kasim Hasan Khan is one and would always be happy to have him as a neighbour. I can confidently state that he always had a good inclination towards the British, for I have had ample reason to believe it and if called upon will be only too happy to state what I know of the native gentleman, for he took charge of a Native Female Friend of mine in his house at Shahjahanpur for several months during the Mutiny of 1857. In short, he always had a good mind for the success of the British. I should indeed be too glad to hear of his being rewarded by Government for the same.

I may further remark that I was living at the Tehsil when my bungalow was burnt on the 15th of May 1857. In fact, it was at the request of the above native gentleman that I had left my bungalow and attribute my escape (from being murdered) to it.

I hereby certify that M. Kasim Hasan Khan, Tehsildar of Firozabad in the Agra District, performed good and faithful service to the state during the months of May and June immediately after the out-break of the Mutiny of 1857. I was stationed with him at Ferozabad in command of a Detachment of the Gwalior Contingent Irregular Cavalry, themselves not well disposed towards the Government, and I attribute the maintenance of good order in the district during those disturbed months to the good example and great local influence of M. Kasim Hasan Khan. He often accompanied me in attacks on rebel villages and on Decoits, and freely exposed himself to dangers. When at last the Detachment of Cavalry mutinied and it was impossible to maintain order in the district without a military force he accompanied me into Agra. Had he remained behind he would certainly have been ill used by the Mutineers. He was also instrumental in saving Rs. 2,000 of Government Money, which he sent on to Agra when the temper of the troops became doubtful. After we left his property was plundered by the mutineers. Shortly after our arrival in Agra, he left for his home in Shahjahanpur, where his family were exposed to many dangers and the Government authority beyond the immediate neighbourhood of the Fort of Agra was disregarded. I have stated his services at this length as he has lost his appointment for having been absent at a time when his remaining in Agra would have been productive of no good, and when his absence from his family would have endangered the safety of his family. I sincerely trust that what I have above stated may be of service to a man, I have a great regard for, and who has invariably shewn the greatest attention and civility to the Europeans.

M. Kasim Hasan Khan, formerly Tahsildar of Ferozabad, has been intimately known to me for the last three years, and I firmly believe that not a shadow of suspicion can be attached to him as to being a true and faithful servant of Government. The fact of his not having left his post, till he was driven from it by the disaffection of the people of Ferozabad and the surrounding villages and several other circumstances which are too lengthy to be detailed, such as my having remained with him for some days during the heat of the Mutiny, his having rendered such aid as was in his power to fetch "Marr" one of the Railway officials, &c., is all that need be said in his favour. If anything further is required, I will be most willing to say and write what is true and just in my friend's favour.

MUNDAB : } (Sd.) J. PRICE.

I have had the pleasure of being acquainted with M. Kasim Hasan Khan since may 1857 when he held the post of Tehsildar at Firozabad, Zilla Agra. In those trying times M. Kasim Hasan Khan behaved with the greatest loyalty and gallantry possible and on the abandonment of the district of Mainpuri he accompanied us to Agra. From this station after the battle of the 5th July and destruction of the station he received leave to his home at Shahjahanpur and from the date of his arrival at his home to the time Shahjahanpur was retaken I believe he behaved loyally and remained staunch to Government.

On the advance of Commander-in-Chief at Shahjahanpur he went out to meet the force and up to the 3rd May 1858 remained in attendance on the Magistrate of the district. On the departure of the Commander-in-Chief on the 2nd and the advance of the rebels under the Maulvi on the 3rd May he protected Mr. Sallemond's son and defended his house till night when he escaped with his charge and in consequence of his adherence to Government his house and property was destroyed by the rebels. Since his appointment of Tehsildar of Powayan he has in every way done his best to furnish my force with supplies and carry out any work entrusted to him. I believe M. Kasim Hasan Khan to be in every way a very superior man.

CAMP SHAHJAHANPUR : } (Sd.) D. CANYOU, LIEUTENANT,

Late Commanding at Powayan.

M. Qasim Hasan Khan, Tehsildar of Powayan, has been known to me for more than eighteen months, and I have a very high opinion of his probity and honour. In his tastes and ideas he sympathizes more with English notions than any native whom I have yet met in India, and I believe that he is a man, who, when properly appreciated, will gain the esteem of most English gentlemen.

I give this note to my old friend and protege M. Kasim Hasan Khan, a native gentleman of old family in Shahjahanpur and now a Tehsildar in that district, deputed to Behar on special duty. If sent to the Famine districts he hopes to get employment in Chuprah and I hope he may be successful. I can guarantee his integrity and desire to do his duty and trust that he will do credit to his Government.

MY DEAR CARNAC,

Let me introduce my friend, M. Kasim Hasan Khan, who has been sent down for employment in Bengal. He is an old protege of mine and has come to see me while his things are on their way down country. He is a gentleman by birth and is afraid of being put under some one who may not believe in native gentlemen. He is well off and wanted to resign after 20 years' service but I made him hold on. If you could get him put at Anderson's disposal who is buying mules, he would be of great service. He is a first rate judge of horses and to be depended on.

(Sd.) R. DRUMMOND.

10th April, 1874.

Commissioner, Agra.

M. Kasim Hasan Khan has been known to me for several years, but I have had more intimate knowledge of him since 1883, when I assumed charge of the Commissionership of Rohilkhand. Seeing that his first appointment as Tehsildar dates from 1854, it might be assumed that he is wanting in activity but physically he is a great deal more active and energetic than 9 out of 10 Tehsildars of the ordinary type. Though he might not now be able to pass a competitive examination, his shrewd common sense and his experience and tact render him a most useful officer; and I look upon him as thoroughly good Tehsildar. The fact that in a district so full of intrigue and so ripe in false accusations as Bareilly, no one has even made in the smallest degree any imputations against his honesty, justifies me in rendering that I hold him to be a thoroughly honest man. He is one of the old fashioned sort but I am not prepared to count this against him, and can say that if some of the other Tehsildars were to imitate him they would benefit thereby. I give M. Kasim Hasan Khan this letter as I am shortly about to retire from Government service.

(Sd.) J. C. ROBERTSON,

1st December, 1889.

Member, Board of Revenue.

M. Qasim Hasan Khan is an old and valued friend of mine with whom I have been on the most pleasant terms of intimacy during 21 years. Throughout his career he has shewn a partiality for the society of English gentlemen, and a sympathy with their taste and ideas, which has been fully reciprocated by those who knew him. At the present moment there must be in England numbers of retired civilians formerly belonging to these Provinces who treat him as a friend and remember him with feelings of esteem and affection,

M. Qasim Hasan Khan does not desire to obtain higher promotion, but I hope that when the question of his pension is considered, Government will consider his strong claims to some recognition at their hands in addition to his long service of over 30 years as Tehsildar. He and all his brothers proved staunch friends to the English in their time of trouble in 1857. Two of his brothers, one a Sub-judge, the other a Deputy Collector, were killed by the rebels, and he himself risked his life on our behalf.

The loyalty of himself and his family has been conspicuous, and being about to leave India after retirement, I give these few lines in the hope that they may be of some use to his sons, who deserve some consideration from Englishmen.

SHAHJAHANPUR,

28th December, 1897.

MY DEAR ISRAR HASAN KHAN,

Please accept my deepest sympathy in the sad loss you and your brothers have sustained, in the death of your father. I feel as if I had lost a sincere friend. I was very hopeful of being able to restore him to health, more especially as he had been keeping so well for the last two weeks, but it was God's will that it should be otherwise and all our lives are in his hands and he knows best.

Kindly convey my deepest sympathy to each of your brothers individually.

MY DEAR SIR,

I am truly grieved at hearing, from your letter, of the death of my old friend Qasim Hasan Khan. It is now forty years since I first met him at Shahjahanpur in 1858, when the whole country was disturbed, and he served under me much later when I was Lieutenant-Governor of the North Western Provinces and Oudh, I have always had a great esteem and regard for him as a faithful officer of the British Government and a good sportsman. His life must have been long and not unprosperous. But I am very sorry to learn that his last illness was painful. Pray receive and convey to the rest of his family an expression of my sympathy and condolence.

3rd February, 1898.

MY DEAR KHAN SAHEB,

I have received your letter, dated 4th January 1898, and have read with very real regret, indeed, the news of your excellent father's death. I knew that he had been ill. Another Indian friend in writing told me so ; and I attributed to this cause the fact that he had not for some months written to me. But I did not expect to receive news of his death. I had a very great regard for him, and I think that of all the Indian gentlemen I have known, there was no one for whom the Englishmen who knew him had more genuine liking than your father. I am sure that many Englishmen who knew him will sincerely grieve over the news of his death.

I am very sorry to think that his last illness was a painful one. You do not say what the nature of it was. But it was like your father to bear his sufferings with patience and fortitude. There must have been consolation for him in the fact that he had seen all his sons occupying places in the public services, and doing well and worthily in life.

I hope that your brothers are all well in health ; and that the youngest of them will before very long get some further advancement in the Revenue Department. Give my salutations and best wishes to them all ; I hope that all of you will always merit the regard that your father gained, and will keep up the family name for loyalty and uprightness.
